No Political Solution?

"They stole the election from Trump, so voting does not matter anymore!

What would a Libertarian voting eligibility standard look like?

1 vote per household, head of household votes.

But...

Only if they are also a net taxpayer...IE get less in return than they pay in,

AND at least one of the following:

Property owner

veteran

first responder

business owner

holder of medical, trade, law, or professional license

Disabled or medical discharge vets/first responders can always vote

Might have missed something but you get the drift. We are a Republic not a Democracy.

There is no right to vote in our Constitution and that is a good thing. This policy would save us almost overnight.

Trump should declare a state of emergency based on a foreign power, China,....and its US agents.... attempting to sieze control of the government through a color revolution and election fraud.

This state of emergency should extend through January 2024 and count as part of his 1st term for the purpose of term limits. He can run again in 2024 and whoever wins will be inaugurated January 2025.

This is the only way to make sure our nation is not subverted and that nobody tries this bullshit again.

Looks like ex-Proud Boy, Eddie "Feddie" Block is getting getting an interview to testify before the January 6 congressional hearings.

A heartfelt thanks from the bottom of my heart to all the donors who came through at the bitter end to make this possible.

I have turned in all required paperwork and the check for the qualifying fee to be on November's ballot.
