Subject: QUESTION - Barre Taylor's Request For Sentence Modification

Date: Thu, 13 Oct 2016 16:16:45 -0400

Lynne / Phil

Notice (see attached motion to Court) that former BCSO Deputy Barre Taylor is seeking a sentence modification.

This man apparently RAPED a woman he had custodial control over - and he is merely charged with "sexual misconduct". He avoids prison - and registering on the sexual offender list - AND now he wishes not to be a convicted felon too? Heck why not just write him a speeding ticket and call it a day !?

This has us (VolusiaExposed) wondering how seriously the Deputy Yousef Hafza matter is being handled.

Question - since the governor ordered the 7th SA's office to handle the Taylor prosecution - due to the fact that a member of Taylor's family works for your office - do they (7th) have to respond to this motion - or does your office handle?

Regards,
