I have spent my entire legal career as an Assistant State Attorney with the Office of the State Attorney for the 18th Judicial Circuit. I started in County Court prosecuting misdemeanor crimes. After approximately 3 years in County Court I was promoted to Circuit Court and began prosecuting felony crimes. After 1 year of prosecuting felony crimes, I was put in charge of training new attorneys as they started their prosecution careers. Eventually I returned to the Circuit Court where I was assigned to prosecute sex crimes and crimes against children before handling a docket prosecuting career criminal offenders. I now serve as a Division Chief where I am tasked with supervising 3 attorneys and 4 support staff employees. I also am assigned to all criminal homicides and am responsible to oversee the prosecution in those cases.

23. What percentage of your appearance in courts in the last five years or last five years of practice (include the dates) was in:

Court		Area of Practice
Federal Appellate	_____ %	Civil	_____ %
Federal Trial	_____ %	Criminal	100 %
Federal Other	_____ %	Family	_____ %
State Appellate	_____ %	Probate	_____ %
State Trial	100 %	Other	_____ %
State Administrative	_____ %
State Other	_____ %
	_____ %
TOTAL	100 %	TOTAL	100 %

24. In your lifetime, how many (number) of the cases you have tried to verdict or judgment were:

Jury? 70+ Non-jury? 10
 Arbitration? _____ Administrative Bodies? _____

25. Within the last ten years, have you ever been formally reprimanded, sanctioned, demoted, disciplined, placed on probation, suspended or terminated by an employer or tribunal before which you have appeared? If so, please state the circumstances under which such action was taken, the date(s) such action was taken, the name(s) of any persons who took such action, and the background and resolution of such action.

No

26. In the last ten years, have you failed to meet any deadline imposed by court order or received notice that you have not complied with substantive requirements of any business or contractual arrangement? If so, please explain in full.

No

(Questions 27 through 30 are optional for sitting judges who have served 5 years or more.)

N/A

29. For the cases you have tried to award in arbitration, during each of the past five years, indicate whether you were sole, associate or chief counsel. Give citations of any reported cases.

N/A

30. List and describe the six most significant cases which you personally litigated giving case style, number and citation to reported decisions, if any. Identify your client and describe the nature of your participation in the case and the reason you believe it to be significant. Give the name of the court and judge, the date tried and names of other attorneys involved.

2010-CF-53468-AXXX State vs. Brandon Lancaster, trial started 01/07/2013, heard by Judge Charles Roberts, defense counsel Assistant Public Defender George McCarthy (retired), Per Curiam Affirmed 5th DCA 5D13-1546. This trial was significant in my career because it was the first homicide trial that I was selected to assist as co-counsel. At the time the case went to trial, I had only been practicing law for 6 years. My Division Chief, Susan Garrett, allowed me to assist her because I had shown my ability to prepare and conduct a trial of this magnitude. I conducted approximately 50% of the trial.

2012-CF-51155-AXXX State vs. Eduardo Figueroa, trial started 09/03/2014, heard by Judge David Silverman, defense counsel Sean and Margaret Wagner (321) 433-0737, 9 of 10 convictions were affirmed by the 5thDCA in case number 5D14-4515. I was the primary Assistant State Attorney assigned to this case and my co-counsel was Division Chief Assistant State Attorney Julia Lynch. I conducted approximately 80% of the trial. The Defendant was alleged to have sexually battered and molested multiple juvenile family members. The Court heard, and granted, a Motion to Suppress that dealt with the Defendant's interview by law enforcement when they visited the Defendant at his home. The trial court concluded that the Defendant was in custody at the time of the interview. The State of Florida appealed the trial court's ruling and the Fifth District Court of Appeal reversed the trial court's order. (State v. Figueroa, 139 So.3d 365 (5th DCA 2014)) This case is significant because of the case law that was developed on the issue of custodial interrogations. Also, it was one of the first cases that I tried involving children victims and very emotional family members. The Defendant was sentenced to multiple life sentences after a guilty jury verdict.

2012-CF-51367-AXXX State vs. Jonathan Williams, trial started 09/11/2013, heard by Judge Charles Roberts, defense counsel Assistant Public Defender Jessica Hicks, Appellant filed a Notice of Voluntary Dismissal in Fifth District Court of Appeal case number 5D13-4117. I was the primary Assistant State Attorney assigned to this case and my co-counsel was Assistant State Attorney Kari Kies. I conducted 80% of the trial. This case was significant to me because we were dealing with a victim that did not have the best parenting while growing up, and was placed in a position where she was alone with the Defendant who was significantly older than she was. The case addressed issues of consent when dealing with minors engaged in sexual encounters. After the Defendant was found guilty of Lewd or Lascivious Battery the defense argued for a downward departure based on those same issues and Judge Robert's refused to follow the defense request.

2013-CF-63830-AXXX State vs. Joseph Halliday, trial started 03/16/2015, heard by Judge Charles Roberts, defense counsel Ernest Chang. I was the primary Assistant State Attorney assigned to this case and Division Chief Susan Garrett was my co-counsel. I conducted 75% of this trial. The Fifth District Court of Appeal reversed and remanded for entry of judgment of acquittal on the conviction of Lewd or Lascivious Molestation but affirmed the convictions of Sexual Battery and Providing Obscene Material to a Minor in case number 5D15-1803. This case was significant because it was my first experience dealing with the testimony of a very young child. The victim in this case was five years old when her father sexually battered her in his home. At the time of her testimony the victim was only 8 years old. I knew the victim's older brother because of Little League Baseball and it was very difficult leading the victim and her family through the trial process. Ultimately the Defendant was convicted and sentenced to life in prison.

2014-CF-45214-AXXX State vs. Josiah Hadley, trial started 01/31/2018, heard by Judge Morgan Reinman, defense counsel Brian Onek and Andrea Fant. I was the primary Assistant State Attorney assigned to this case and Division Chief Susan Garrett was my co-counsel. I conducted 50% of this trial. The case is currently on appeal and set for oral arguments in Fifth District Court of Appeal case number 5D18-3466. This case was significant because it was the first homicide case that I was trusted to handle as the primary Assistant State Attorney. The Defendant murdered his girlfriend in the apartment they shared. The defense filed a Motion to Suppress alleging that the police violated their client's Miranda Rights. The motion was denied and is a major focus of the appellate case. Also, early in the case, the Court found that the proof was evident and the presumption was great during a bond hearing but refused to hold the Defendant without bond and set a cash bond. The Defendant was able to post the bond and was out of custody while the case was pending. The victims family did not understand the ruling and were very emotional about the Defendant being out of custody. The Defendant was found guilty of Second Degree Murder and sentenced to 25 years in the Department of Corrections.

2016-CF-23249-AXXX State vs. Stephen Warrington, trial started 04/08/2019, heard by Judge Robin C. Lemonidis, defense counsel Chief Assistant Public Defender Michael Pirollo. I was the primary Assistant State Attorney and Assistant State Attorney Amy McLaughlin was my co-counsel. I conducted 50% of the trial. The case is currently on appeal in Fifth District Court of Appeal case number 5D19-2847. This case is significant to me because it was the first First Degree Murder case that was assigned to me in anticipation of me becoming a Division Chief at the State Attorney's Office. The trial had complex self defense issues that we were forced to overcome. The family of the victim were present during the trial and the lengthy jury deliberations which were very stressful. The jury returned a verdict of guilty to the lesser offense of Second Degree Murder and the Defendant was sentenced to a lengthy prison sentence followed by a term of probation.

I have taught a course to law enforcement recruits on legal defenses.

50. Describe any additional education or other experience you have which could assist you in holding judicial office.

For the last 4 years I have volunteered as a baseball umpire for the local little league. Understanding that the consequences of decisions made by a volunteer umpire and a Circuit Court Judge are vastly different, the character traits to be successful in each role are very similar. First, a successful umpire must study the rules of baseball to properly apply them to situations experienced on the field of play. This is similar to the expectation that a judge is well versed and has studied the law they are expected to apply in matters they preside over. Second, an umpire must prepare prior to a baseball game so he/she understands the specific rules that apply to different age and experience levels. Attorneys expect judges to be prepared prior to hearings and trials so time is not wasted readdressing issues that were already presented in pleadings that were filed in the matter. Third, an umpire is required to maintain concentration while the game is taking place so he/she can make fair, unbiased decisions in conformity with the rules he/she has studied. This character trait is important for a judge to possess as parties expect the judge to not be distracted during matters before the court and to make fair and unbiased decisions. Finally, umpires must maintain decorum when making decisions unfavorable to one team. An umpire must make a decision, voice the decision, and then calmly listen to argument and explain how the decision was made based on the rules of the game. In an adversarial legal system, judges are forced to make difficult decisions that are unfavorable to one side. After the decision is made, a judge must calmly maintain decorum in the courtroom and not allow attorneys to disrespect the process or the Court. I feel my experience as a volunteer umpire has helped me refine those character traits that contribute to maintaining a fair, unbiased, respected courtroom.

51. Explain the particular potential contribution you believe your selection would bring to this position.

I have dedicated my adult life to public service. From patrolling the streets as a police officer, to conducting first degree murder trials as an assistant state attorney, I have had to make difficult decisions. The progression of my career shows a strong work ethic leading to promotions and awards at every level. I have a reputation of being fair, listening to both sides of an argument, applying the law, and making a fair, unbiased decision. Spending most days in the courtroom and supervising a division of attorneys, gives me the unique understanding of scheduling and time management. As a judge, I will bring that experience with me and assure that matters are heard timely, all parties are given the opportunity to present their argument, decisions are made promptly, and everyone is treated with respect and dignity.

52. If you have previously submitted a questionnaire or application to this or any other judicial nominating commission, please give the name of the commission and the approximate date of submission.

N/A

53. Give any other information you feel would be helpful to the Commission in evaluating your application.

I appreciate the Commission for allowing me to submit this application. I have waited for the appropriate time in my career to submit my name for judicial nomination. I have obtained the knowledge, experience, and maturity that the public expects from judges. I believe that my work ethic and dedication to public service makes me the best candidate to serve as a judge in the 18th Judicial Circuit.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM 6:

PUBLIC RECORD: The disclosure form and everything attached to it is a public record. Your Social Security Number is not required and you should redact it from any documents you file. If you are an active or former officer or employee listed in Section 119.071(4)(d), F.S., whose home address is exempt from disclosure, the Commission is required to maintain the confidentiality of your home address if you submit a written request for confidentiality.

PART A – NET WORTH

Report your net worth as of December 31 or a more current date, and list that date. This should be the same date used to value your assets and liabilities. In order to determine your net worth, you will need to total the value of all your assets and subtract the amount of all of your liabilities. Simply subtracting the liabilities reported in Part C from the assets reported in Part B will not result in an accurate net worth figure in most cases.

To total the value of your assets, add:

- form;
- (1) The aggregate value of household goods and personal effects, as reported in Part B of this form;
 - (2) The value of all assets worth over $1,000, as reported in Part B; and
 - (3) The total value of any assets worth less than $1,000 that were not reported or included in the category of "household goods and personal effects."

To total the amount of your liabilities, add:

- (1) The total amount of each liability you reported in Part C of this form, except for any amounts listed in the "joint and several liabilities not reported above" portion; and,
- (2) The total amount of unreported liabilities (including those under $1,000, credit card and retail installment accounts, and taxes owed).

PART B – ASSETS WORTH MORE THAN $1,000

HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS:

The value of your household goods and personal effects may be aggregated and reported as a lump sum, if their aggregate value exceeds $1,000. The types of assets that can be reported in this manner are described on the form.

ASSETS INDIVIDUALLY VALUED AT MORE THAN $1,000:

Provide a description of each asset you had on the reporting date chosen for your net worth (Part A), that was worth more than $1,000 and that is not included as household goods and personal effects, and list its value. Assets include: interests in real property; tangible and intangible personal property, such as cash, stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, interests in partnerships, beneficial interest in a trust, promissory notes owed to you, accounts received by you, bank accounts, assets held in IRAs, Deferred Retirement Option Accounts, and Florida Prepaid College Plan accounts. You are not required to disclose assets owned solely by your spouse.

How to Identify or Describe the Asset:

- Real property: Identify by providing the street address of the property. If the property has no street address, identify by describing the property's location in a manner sufficient to enable a member of the public to ascertain its location without resorting to any other source of information.
- Intangible property: Identify the type of property and the business entity or person to which or to whom it relates. Do not list simply "stocks and bonds" or "bank accounts." For example, list "Stock (Williams Construction Co.)," "Bonds (Southern Water and Gas)," "Bank accounts (First National Bank), "Smith family trust," Promissory note and mortgage (owed by John and Jane Doe)."

How to Value Assets:

- Value each asset by its fair market value on the date used in Part A for your net worth.
- Jointly held assets: If you hold real or personal property jointly with another person, your interest equals your legal percentage of ownership in the property. However, assets that are held as tenants by the entirety or jointly with right of survivorship must be reported at 100% of their value.
- Partnerships: You are deemed to own an interest in a partnership which corresponds to your interest in the equity of that partnership.
- Trusts: You are deemed to own an interest in a trust which corresponds to your percentage interest in the trust corpus.
- Real property may be valued at its market value for tax purposes, unless a more accurate appraisal of its fair market value is available.
- Marketable securities which are widely traded and whose prices are generally available should be valued based upon the closing price on the valuation date.
- Accounts, notes, and loans receivable: Value at fair market value, which generally is the amount you reasonably expect to collect.
- Closely-held businesses: Use any method of valuation which in your judgment most closely approximates fair market value, such as book value, reproduction value, liquidation value, capitalized earnings value, capitalized cash flow value, or value established by "buy-out" agreements. It is suggested that the method of valuation chosen be indicated in a footnote on the form.
- Life insurance: Use cash surrender value less loans against the policy, plus accumulated dividends.

PART C—LIABILITIES

LIABILITIES IN EXCESS OF $1,000:

List the name and address of each creditor to whom you were indebted on the reporting date chosen for your net worth (Part A) in an amount that exceeded $1,000 and list the amount of the liability. Liabilities include: accounts payable; notes payable; interest payable; debts or obligations to governmental entities other than taxes (except when the taxes have been reduced to a judgment); and judgments against you. You are not required to disclose liabilities owned solely by your spouse.

You do not have to list on the form any of the following: credit card and retail installment accounts, taxes owed unless the taxes have been reduced to a judgment), indebtedness on a life insurance policy owned to the company of issuance, or contingent liabilities. A "contingent liability" is one that will become an actual liability only when one or more future events occur or fail to occur, such as where you are liable only as a partner (without personal liability) for partnership debts, or where you are liable only as a guarantor, surety, or endorser on a promissory note. If you are a "co-maker" on a note and have signed as being jointly liable or jointly and severally liable, then this is not a contingent liability.

How to Determine the Amount of a Liability:

- Generally, the amount of the liability is the face amount of the debt.
- If you are the only person obligated to satisfy a liability, 100% of the liability should be listed.

— If you are jointly and severally liable with another person or entity, which often is the case where more than one person is liable on a promissory note, you should report here only the portion of the liability that corresponds to your percentage of liability. However, if you are jointly and severally liable for a debt relating to property you own with one or more others as tenants by the entirety or jointly, with right of survivorship, report 100% of the total amount owed.

— If you are only jointly (not jointly and severally) liable with another person or entity, your share of the liability should be determined in the same way as you determined your share of jointly held assets.

Examples:

— You owe $10,000 to a bank for student loans, $5,000 for credit card debts, and $60,000 with your spouse to a saving and loan for the mortgage on the home you own with your spouse. You must report the name and address of the bank ($10,000 being the amount of that liability) and the name and address of the savings and loan ($60,000 being the amount of this liability). The credit cards debts need not be reported.

— You and your 50% business partner have a $100,000 business loan from a bank and you both are jointly and severally liable. Report the name and address of the bank and $50,000 as the amount of the liability. If your liability for the loan is only as a partner, without personal liability, then the loan would be a contingent liability.

JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITIES NOT REPORTED ABOVE:

List in this part of the form the amount of each debt, for which you were jointly and severally liable, that is not reported in the "Liabilities in Excess of $1,000" part of the form. Example: You and your 50% business partner have a $100,000 business loan from a bank and you both are jointly and severally liable. Report the name and address of the bank and $50,000 as the amount of the liability, as you reported the other 50% of the debt earlier.

PART D – INCOME

As noted on the form, you have the option of either filing a copy of your latest federal income tax return, including all schedules, W2's and attachments, with Form 6, or completing Part D of the form. If you do not attach your tax return, you must complete Part D.

PRIMARY SOURCES OF INCOME:

List the name of each source of income that provided you with more than $1,000 of income during the year, the address of that source, and the amount of income received from that source. The income of your spouse need not be disclosed; however, if there is a joint income to you and your spouse from property you own jointly (such as interest or dividends from a bank account or stocks), you should include all of that income.

"Income" means the same as "gross income" for federal income tax purposes, even if the income is not actually taxable, such as interest on tax-free bonds. Examples of income include: compensation for services, gross income from business, gains from property dealings, interest, rents, dividends, pensions, IRA distributions, distributive share of partnership gross income, and alimony, but not child support. Where income is derived from a business activity you should report that income to you, as calculated for income tax purposes, rather than the income to the business.

Examples:

— If you owned stock in and were employed by a corporation and received more than $1,000 of income (salary, commissions, dividends, etc.) from the company, you should list the name of the company, its address, and the total amount of income received from it.

— If you were a partner in a law firm and your distributive share of partnership gross income exceeded $1,000, you should list the name of the firm, its address, and the amount of your distributive share.

— If you received dividend or interest income from investments in stocks and bonds, list only each individual company from which you received more than $1,000. Do not aggregate income from all of these investments.

— If more than $1,000 of income was gained from the sale of property, then you should list as a source of income the name of the purchaser, the purchaser's address, and the amount of gain from the sale. If the purchaser's identity is unknown, such as where securities listed on an exchange are sold through a brokerage firm, the source of income should be listed simply as "sale of (name of company) stock," for example.

— If more than $1,000 of your income was in the form of interest from one particular financial institution (aggregating interest from all CD's, accounts, etc., at that institution), list the name of the institution, its address, and the amount of income from that institution.

SECONDARY SOURCE OF INCOME:

This part is intended to require the disclosure of major customers, clients, and other sources of income to businesses in which you own an interest. It is not for reporting income from second jobs. That kind of income should be reported as a "Primary Source of Income." You will not have anything to report unless:

(1) You owned (either directly or indirectly in the form of an equitable or beneficial interest) during the disclosure period, more than 5% of the total assets or capital stock of a business entity (a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, LLC, proprietorship, joint venture, trust, firm, etc., doing business in Florida); and

(2) You received more than $1,000 in gross income from that business entity during the period.

If your ownership and gross income exceeded the two thresholds listed above, then for that business entity you must list every source of income to the business entity which exceeded 10% of the business entity's gross income (computed on the basis of the business entity's more recently completed fiscal year), the source's address, the source's principal business activity, and the name of the business entity in which you owned an interest. You do not have to list the amount of income the business derived from that major source of income.

Examples:

— You are the sole proprietor of a dry cleaning business, from which you received more than $1,000 in gross income last year. If only one customer, a uniform rental company, provided more than 10% of your dry cleaning business, you must list the name of your business, the name of the uniform rental company, its address, and its principal business activity (uniform rentals).

— You are a 20% partner in a partnership that owns a shopping mall and your gross partnership income exceeded $1,000. You should list the name of the partnership, the name of each tenant of the mall that provided more than 10% of the partnership's gross income, the tenant's address and principal business activity.

PART E – INTERESTS IN SPECIFIED BUSINESS

The types of businesses covered in this section include: state and federally chartered banks; state and federal savings and loan associations; cemetery companies; insurance companies; mortgage companies, credit unions; small loan companies; alcoholic beverage licensees; pari-mutuel wagering companies; utility companies; and entities controlled by the Public Service Commission; and entities granted a franchise to operate by either a city or a county government.

You are required to make this disclosure if you own or owned (either directly or indirectly in the form of an equitable or beneficial interest) at any time during the disclosure period, more than 5% of the total assets or capital stock of one of the types of business entities listed above. You also must complete this part of the form for each of these types of business for which you are, or were at any time during the year an officer, director, partner, proprietor, or agent (other than a resident agent solely for service of process).

If you have or held such a position or ownership interest in one of these types of businesses, list: the name of the business, its address and principal business activity, and the position held with the business (if any). Also, if you own(ed) more than a 5% interest in the business, as described above, you must indicate that fact and describe the nature of your interest.

JUDICIAL APPLICATION DATA RECORD

The judicial application shall include a separate page asking applicants to identify their race, ethnicity and gender. Completion of this page shall be optional, and the page shall include an explanation that the information is requested for data collection purposes in order to assess and promote diversity in the judiciary. The chair of the Commission shall forward all such completed pages, along with the names of the nominees to the JNC Coordinator in the Governor's Office (pursuant to JNC Uniform Rule of Procedure).
