Subject: Mr. Trettis (Public Defender) Please Request To Review The Edwards Video

Date: Fri, 12 Jun 2020 13:38:45 -0400

Mr. Trettis (others cc / bcc)

Our publication (VolusiaExposed.Com) is developing an article (see below web link - article in development) in which we shall question whether the public defender's office has a public responsibility & duty to request, and to review, the Gregory Edwards' jail surveillance video.

While Mr. Brown, the spokesperson for the State Attorney's Office makes a fair argument (see below - linked letter), that the public could petition the Court for the jail surveillance video - the statutory exemption, (see below linked statute) also seems to allow your office to review the video, so that your office can complete it's mission, and constitutional responsibilities.

Upon completion of your review of the video, and in the furtherance of justice, your office could make an independent decision whether the video needed to be publicly released.

We intend to publish our article after close of business today (June 12th) - should you wish to provide a statement - please forward to this email by close of business.
