

Jan. 24, 2018

For immediate release

Contact Laura Williams, Office of Public Affairs & Media Relations

UPDATE: INMATE IDENTIFIED

The Volusia County Sheriff's Office has notified the family of Douglas F. Robinson, who was an inmate at the Volusia County Branch Jail, of his death by an apparent suicide early today. Robinson, who had no permanent address, was 23 years old; DOB: 10/06/94.

VOLUSIA COUNTY BRANCH JAIL INMATE DEAD IN APPARENT SUICIDE

Volusia County sheriff's detectives responded to the Volusia County Branch Jail early today after an inmate was discovered hanging in his jail cell.

The inmate was found by his cellmate, who returned from work duties about 2 a.m., hanging by a bed sheet. Multiple officers performed CPR on the inmate until EVAC arrived and transported him to Halifax Health Medical Center in Daytona Beach, where he was pronounced deceased at 3:04 a.m. His identity is not being released at this time, pending notification of his next of kin.