Glad Vicki was helpful. She typifies county government's workforce. Our employees do a great job and go out of their way to be responsive to citizens. As to the question of Flowers listing on the website, I am assuming you are referring to the right side of the Corrections home page on volusia.org. You're right, he's not listed. I do not know why, but I am guessing it's just something that was overlooked. I will check with Director Ford. Thanks for calling it to my attention. Dave Byron

Given that you have advised HeadlineSurfer that you treat all the same - given that you have answered questions from the News Journal - I have one question.

Mark Flowers - the Assistant Corrections Director was hired in May of this year - his name and contact information is still not on the Corrections website - why?

By the way - Vicki Potter (County Personnel) was very helpful in securing the Flowers files.
