Subject: LEO Moral Character Violation?

Date: Mon, 12 Dec 2016 14:25:27 -0500

Stacy Lehman
CJSTC - FDLE
Tallahassee, Florida

Mr. Lehman:

We (VolusiaExposed.Com) suspect that the Volusia County Division of Corrections failed to properly investigate the allegations against Corrections Sgt. Willie Jenkins - outside the compliance of Florida State law (F.S. Chapter 943) and Florida Administrative Code (FAC 11B-27).

We believe that based on Corrections Director Mark Flowers' October 19, 2016 memo - Flowers suspected that Sgt. Jenkins was not in compliance with the CJSTC moral character standards.

Our concerns are explained within our below linked Internet article. Our supportive documents are linked within this article.

We believe that you can authorize a review of any alleged misconduct incident - based on a published news article. Please be advised that the Florida Supreme Court has recognizes our publication as a "local news organization" - see the below attached PDF file.

We also hold the opinion that your agency does have the statutory authority (and responsibility) to review this matter under F.S. 943.1395(5) - as outlined in the statute, as well as in our article.

Please provide us (at the below email address) how you intend to proceed in this matter of public importance.
