

Mr. Jeffrey Deen

Office of Criminal Conflict

and Civil Regional Counsel

Fifth District, Florida

jdeen@rc5state.com

cpowell@rc5state.com

June 6, 2014

Ref: Luis Toledo

1989 Orlando Sentinel Article

Mr. Deen:

VolusiaExposed anticipates posting another article regarding your client, Luis Toledo.

As you may be aware, VolusiaExposed has raised some concerns, and posted some earlier articles, about a possible conflict of interest attached to Circuit Court Judge Margaret Hudson being assigned to your client's case.

We invite you to view our earlier articles at <http://www.VolusiaExposed.Com>

In preparation for our next article, we would appreciate you reviewing the below attached October 30, 1989 – Orlando Sentinel article.

Are you the same Jeff Deen that is highlighted in this Orlando Sentinel article?

http://articles.orlandosentinel.com/1989-10-30/business/8910283583_1_deen-lawyer-seminole

If your answer is yes, - we draw your attention to paragraph seven of the article.

Since your client has been charged with the murder of three human beings, two of them being small children, - are you “compromising your values” (as defined in the article) by representing Mr. Toledo, or has your value system changed?

Lastly, since leaving the prosecutor's office, have you defended anyone charged with crimes against children? If so, can you provide us with some case examples. (names, year, county, etc)

Regards;

VolusiaExposed.Com

volusiaexposed@cfl.rr.com

cc – Luis Toledo

bcc – several