

- (b) The Mother shall provide written proof to the Court that she is currently under therapeutic therapy with a psychologist or psychiatrist.
- (c) The Mother shall continue in therapy for twelve (12) month's from the entry of this Parenting Plan with a frequency to be determined by her therapist.
- (d) The Mother shall provide her therapy reports/records to the Court, under seal, from her therapist(s) at the conclusion of the twelve (12) month period commencing with the entry of this Parenting Plan.

(e) The Mother's therapeutic reports shall reflect that:

(i) The Mother accepts and acknowledges her inappropriate actions in filing false abuse charges against the Father and that the Father has not abused the minor child;

(ii) The Mother shall not interfere with the minor child's relationship with the Father;

(iii) The Mother shall protect the minor child's interest;

(iv) The Mother shall not create harm by disparaging the Father.

- 2. The Mother may seek a supplemental hearing at the end of the twelve-month period to seek a modification of this Parenting Plan and Timesharing Schedule to seek a reduction or termination of the supervised timesharing with the minor child.

VII. MOTHER'S SUPERVISED TIME-SHARING PLAN:

- 1. The Mother shall have two (2) consecutive days of daytime supervised timesharing for six (6) hours each day every month beginning April 2013. The Mother shall contact the Father one (1) month in advance to coordinate her requested days for her upcoming monthly supervised timesharing. The Mother's supervised timesharing shall include supervised holiday timesharing.
- 2. The Mother's monthly timesharing shall be supervised by Delight McGregorian of Coastal Behavioral Therapy or by an alternative supervisor proposed by the Former Wife and agreed to by the Former Husband or by Court order.
- 3. The Mother shall contact the Father and the agreed to timesharing supervisor to schedule her monthly timesharing and shall provide her proposed dates and location. The Father and timesharing supervisor shall approve of the location and dates for the Mother's timesharing.