Mr. Mydock:

Thank you for your attention in this matter:

We (VolusiaExposed.Com) shall allow the original text of our PRR to stand.

We were advised - through a past reliable source - that Thomas had numerous law enforcement endorsements - AND we would like to memorialize all of them. Such information shall be useful - SHOULD she in the end - be the selected judicial appointment.

The endorsements (HHPD, DBPD and Sheriff's) that you have provided today - will allow us to go ahead and publish our initial article - with an advisement to our readers that there is more to come.

Again, thank you for being open and transparent. In the desert of denial and misinformation in which we (VolusiaExposed.Com) usually travel - your information oasis is indeed refreshing.

Regards,

Describe your typical clients or former clients and the problems for which they sought your services.

As a prosecutor in the 7th Judicial Circuit's Career Criminal Unit, I am responsible for managing a diverse range of complex criminal cases. My role includes overseeing cases involving prison releasee reoffenders, sexually violent predators, violent felony offenders, 10-20 Life sentences, sex crimes, and homicides. Additionally, I handle unique cases that may attract media attention or those that are particularly egregious but don't fall under a specific category.

In my position, the decision-making process for filing charges on my docket is crucial. This involves detailed interactions with victims, witnesses, and law enforcement, next of kin, and often requires me to request further investigations or evidence to be collected when necessary. My decision-making process is influenced by a blend of prosecutorial, defensive, and judicial perspectives, ensuring a well-rounded approach to each case. This ensures I am thinking about the case from all angles, not just as a prosecutor.

My time in the Career Criminal Unit has allowed me to work closely with law enforcement, building cases collaboratively from the ground up. This experience has given me a deep understanding of the criminal justice process from start to finish. I value my relationship with law enforcement tremendously.

An essential part of my role is participating in a rotational on-call schedule. Every 5-6 weeks, I am available 24/7 for a week to review after-hours warrants and help law enforcement or other prosecutors. This aspect of the job ensures the unit's accountability and responsiveness.

Before my assignment in the Career Criminal Unit, my experience in the Felony line division was instrumental in developing the skills necessary for prosecuting heightened offenses. It also improved my time management and ability to handle a high volume of criminal cases efficiently.

Identify your client and describe the nature of your participation in the case and the reason you believe it to be significant.

Being in the Career Criminal Unit, every case I have is usually particularly egregious. However, the cases that stick out to me are the ones where I learn the most (handling unique issues) or ones where such an impact has been made on the victim or community, that I will never forget.

- iii. July 2022 Trial

This case was a 13-count charged information ranging from Human Trafficking to Armed Trafficking in Fentanyl. The Defendant terrorized the community and had been doing so for years. The Defendant had been operating a sex trafficking ring for years, using violence and intimidation out of a hotel on Ridgewood Avenue; only a few miles from the courthouse. The primary victim had been beaten so badly by the Defendant that she was blind due to a detached retina. We were able to sustain a conviction on all counts and ensure the Defendant will never be free to terrorize the citizens of Volusia County again. The primary victim was able to courageously testify against the defendant and have her voice heard. Since the trial, we have been able to help her (with the financial help of an anonymous citizen) attend appointments with a specialist, and she is working toward surgery that could regain some vision in her left eye. She is back with her family and writing a book about her experiences.

This case stands out in my career as it triggered a profound community impact that was facilitated by the justice system. Local support for the victims was exceptional and it provided societal healing throughout the area.

Since this case, I have been able to help law enforcement put more resources towards apprehending human trafficking efforts here in Daytona Beach. The relationship I have with the victim and the law enforcement officers who worked on this case will forever be one of the greatest parts of my job.

II. State v. Kyle Christianson – Judge Dennis Craig - 2020-304419 CFDB

- i. Opposing Counsel: Brian Hyer - brian.hyer@pd7.org [REDACTED]
- ii. The charge was Criminal Mischief with an enhancement due to Hate crime Motivation. This is a rarely charged offense due to the complexity of proving the actions of the Defendant were motivated by prejudice.
- iii. July 2021 Trial

This was a very alarming set of facts due to the random targeting of innocent citizens of Volusia County and the several-month manhunt to find out who this Defendant was. The victims were both dentists in the Daytona Beach area and at the time had a 6-month-old baby girl. They were living in fear for several months before we were able to find the Defendant and ultimately convict him of these crimes. The forensic data we were able to obtain from the Defendant's phone showed that he had been harassing more than just the listed victims in our case.

The Defendant visited a dentist's office here in Volusia County and became fixated on them. Both victims are Asian American. The Defendant became enraged when he found out that the Dentist he would be seeing was "not American" even though she had a "white" last name. The Defendant began incessantly calling and leaving messages at the business. He found out where the Dentist and their family lived and began to harass the family late at night without being caught for some time. He would leave tacks and nails in the driveway, paint racial slurs on their vehicles, and leave terrible things regarding their businesses online. The family was terrified and had no idea what they had done to deserve this. Some of the writings even referenced harming their infant.

Through forensics and other investigative means, local law enforcement was able to get an ID from a driver's license tag belonging to the Defendant's dad out of state and it ultimately led to the identification of the Defendant.

Once the Defendant was apprehended and his phone was confiscated, we found that the defendant had been on several websites and message boards furthering this hate speech and threatening violence to any group of Asian individuals. This case is unforgettable to me because it's such a random and completely senseless act of violence with really no explanation other than hate.

- III. State v. Dewayne Maynard – Judge Sandra Upchurch –2018-301753 CFDB.
- i. Opposing Counsel: Larry Powers
  - ii. Trafficking in Oxycodone, Robbery with a Deadly Weapon, Grand Theft
  - iii. March 2019 Trial

This was my first Life Felony Trial so I will never forget it. This Defendant robbed a small mom-and-pop business in the Roscommon Plaza in Ormond Beach. The Defendant had been on a crime spree from South Florida robbing Pharmacies and small businesses. The victims in this case owned a small Chinese restaurant where all the family members, including children, worked. It was a hot Florida day, so the family had the back door to the kitchen open while they cooked as they had often done. The Defendant came in through the back door and held a firearm to the head of the mother who was cooking. The rest of the family panicked and gave him all the money in the register and their tip jar.

The family was so shaken up by this robbery that they closed their business shortly after. Being able to prosecute this Defendant and allow the children to see this man brought to justice, who hurt their family meant a great deal to me.

Coincidentally, I now live in the neighborhood right outside of Roscommon Plaza. My husband and I have been to the restaurant now owned by another family a handful of times and think about this case each time I pass there and how this affected this family. I am proud to be part of the team that brought this family closure and keeps our community safe.

IV. State v. James Long – Judge Leah Case – 2022-300668 CFDB.

- i. Opposing Counsel: Sara Altes
- ii. Sexual Battery on a child x 3
- iii. May 2022 Trial

This case is a sex case involving a mentally challenged victim. The Defendant was a long-time family friend of the victim and very close to the victim herself. The Defendant was an Uncle to the victim but not related by blood. The victim trusted this individual and spent a lot of time with him growing up. The Defendant had groomed this victim, bought her clothes and makeup, and taken her to the park swimming. The victim was 16 years old but mentally functioned as a 12-13 year old. The Defendant had given the victim alcohol and tried to convince her not to tell her mother. Overwhelmed with emotion the victim told her mother and the investigation began.

This case was particularly hard to navigate with the mental capacity as well as the disabilities of the victim. The trial preparation and deposition of the victim was particularly hard because the victim didn't understand and couldn't comprehend the actions of the Defendant as being a predator. I met with this victim more than normal. I developed a relationship with her and discussed non-case-related topics to build trust and a rapport with her where she felt she could rely on me. I helped to get the victim and her mother in counseling to help better process her emotions. By the time the trial came around, I had developed a good enough relationship with her to help her and guide her through the process.

Before trial, the victim had become severely depressed and was suffering from severe panic attacks and anxiety. She even had a severe panic attack and passed out during our first attempt at a deposition with her over Zoom. We had to contact the 911 operator in Texas where she was and get an ambulance to respond to her home. The victim is now married and has one child. She lives in Texas, with her husband in the military and is getting to live a normal life. Seeing such a drastic transition in someone's mental health from the start of this investigation is something I will never forget. This trial brought the victim and her family the closure they needed.

This case was important to me because, but for my office, this victim may not have ever lived a semblance of a normal life due to trauma and fear.

V. State v. Christopher Crouthamel- Judge Leah Case – 2023-300943 CFDB.

- i. Javier Chavez
- ii. Sexual Battery x 2, Traveling to meet a minor x 2, use of an internet service to solicit a child for sex
- iii. October 2023 Trial

This case is one of the most disturbing sex cases I have tried in my career. This is truly every parent's worst nightmare.

The victim was a 14-year-old girl who was severely mentally ill. During the trial, the victim was being held in a secure mental health facility in Alabama and we had to fight and coordinate to get her to testify in our case with the authorities in Alabama. The victim had attempted suicide and ran away several times.

The Defendant met the child on the internet and ended up driving to Volusia County from Ocala to have sex with the child in the woods behind her house while her parents slept. The Defendant was almost 20 years her senior. After this act the situation was reported to authorities after the child disclosed the abuse to her therapist. Unfortunately, there was nothing that led to the identity of the defendant and no evidence to pursue charges.

Then, the Defendant had the audacity to strike up another conversation with the child online and travel back to Volusia County a second time. The Defendant had groomed and manipulated this child into thinking the two of them were in a relationship and had a shared text thread with her detailing over 200 messages. The Defendant traveled to Volusia County, picked up the child from her home, and took her to a hotel roughly one mile up the road. The Defendant kept the child there overnight and then dropped her off at her Middle School bus stop the next morning.

This is such an alarming case because the Defendant would have gotten away with the first act of traveling but for his return to Volusia County.

The Defendant was a true manipulative predator by every definition. It was textbook grooming behavior. The victim was the “perfect” victim. She had been in trouble at school, at home, had a reputation for untruthfulness, was suicidal, and had multiple mental health illnesses. The Defendant picked a child he thought no one would believe. This was a hard-fought case for justice and if not for law enforcement and my follow-up with the forensic data from the victim and defendant's phones the Defendant may not have had to answer for these acts at all.

I learned a great deal about how to work with a victim with these disabilities. Both how to handle it with the victim herself, and how to legally navigate these hardships so they can be heard.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

71. Describe any additional education or experiences you have which could assist you in holding judicial office.

Helping people has always been my passion. At a young age, I knew I wanted to work in some capacity in law enforcement. My father, who passed away in 1994, was a Detective for the Kentucky State Police, an EMT, and a business owner. He was one of the hardest-working people I know. At my father's funeral, I was overwhelmed with how many people were in attendance, many of whom were strangers to me, who just wanted to tell stories of my dad going out of his way to help them or a loved one. I knew I wanted to have that type of impact on the world.

While in college I decided to intern at the Kentucky State Police Headquarters in Frankfort Kentucky. I was begrudgingly placed in the legal department for the summer even though I would have rather been more "in the action." This turned out to be a blessing in disguise and started my passion for public service through the law. I got to see firsthand how the general counsel for KSP helped so many families of fallen officers receive benefits, tuition reimbursement, and health care after enduring a tragedy. I knew myself and my family were once one of those beneficiaries. I was able to go to college under some of the same tuition programs for fallen officer families as I was able to see being granted to those who needed it. It was honestly a full-circle moment for me and changed the trajectory of my life. I knew I wanted to go to law school so in some form, I could help others, the way I was helped. My life experience has given me a unique perspective for my age.

72. Explain the particular contribution you believe your selection would bring to this position and provide any additional information you feel would be helpful to the Commission and Governor in evaluating your application.

I value relationships with people and have always strived throughout my entire career to treat people with respect and dignity no matter what the situation. I get along with almost everyone and I am proud of that fact. You will be hard-pressed to find someone, even opposing counsel, who doesn't have a good working relationship with me or can come to me when they need something. I make myself available to everyone for anything they may need that is within my power. I truly value hard work and effort. In court, we often see the worst of the worst in society, but we also see people who are just having their worst day. It's important to remember that people shouldn't be defined by their worst moments. People may not remember what you said, but they will always remember how you made them feel. As a Judge, I will bring that same viewpoint to the bench.

22. [REDACTED] demonstrated a level of trustworthiness in her consistent statements to multiple people. Some recorded and some under oath.

II. Law:

23. The child told multiple people what happened. [REDACTED] story remained consistent, the child was not coached, the child was not led.
24. State anticipates child will be available to testify and will provide a recorded deposition in this case as scheduling permits prior to trial. The victim has already appeared and started a deposition.
25. Child hearsay is admissible as provided by Florida Statute 90.803(23)(a).
26. 90.803(23) states in full:
  - (a) Unless the source of information or the method or circumstances by which the statement is reported indicates a lack of trustworthiness, an out-of-court statement made by a child victim with a physical, mental, emotional, or developmental age of 16 or less describing any act of child abuse or neglect, any act of sexual abuse against a child, the offense of child abuse, the offense of aggravated child abuse, or any offense involving an unlawful sexual act, contact, intrusion, or penetration performed in the presence of, with, by, or on the declarant child, not otherwise admissible, is admissible in evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding if:
    1. The court finds in a hearing conducted outside the presence of the jury that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient safeguards of reliability. In making its determination, the court may consider the mental and physical age and maturity of the child, the nature and duration of the abuse or offense, the relationship of the child to the offender, the reliability of the assertion, the reliability of the child victim, and any other factor deemed appropriate; and

2. The child either:

a. Testifies; or

b. Is unavailable as a witness, provided that there is other corroborative evidence of the abuse or offense. Unavailability shall include a finding by the court that the child's participation in the trial or proceeding would result in a substantial likelihood of severe emotional or mental harm, in addition to findings pursuant to s. 90.804(1).

(b) In a criminal action, the defendant shall be notified no later than 10 days before trial that a statement which qualifies as a hearsay exception pursuant to this subsection will be offered as evidence at trial. The notice shall include a written statement of the content of the child's statement, the time at which the statement was made, the circumstances surrounding the statement which indicate its reliability, and such other particulars as necessary to provide full disclosure of the statement.

(c) The court shall make specific findings of fact, on the record, as to the basis for its ruling under this subsection. (emphasis added)

27. For a hearsay statement to be admitted under this section, the statement must meet two specific reliability requirements: (1) the source of the information through which the statement was reported must indicate trustworthiness; and (2) the time, content, and circumstances of the statement must reflect that the statement provides sufficient safeguards of reliability. State v. Townsend, 635 So.2d 949 (1994) citing Weatherford v. State, 561 So.2d 629 (Fla. 1st DCA 1990); Salter v. State, 500 So.2d 184 (Fla. 1st DCA 1986).
28. Trial court did not abuse its discretion in prosecution for sexual battery on a person less than 12 years of age by concluding that child victim's hearsay statements were reliable, so as to be admissible pursuant to the child sexual abuse hearsay exception; trial court found that child provided a detailed account of the assaults, that child's reports to various witnesses were consistent, that questions posed to child were open-ended and not leading, that child's answers used words consistent with her age, that there was no evidence the statements or the method of obtaining them were untrustworthy, and that child had no motive to lie and there was no evidence she was coached. Rodriguez v. State, 77 So.3d 649 (3rd DCA 2011).
29. Trial court made sufficient findings and adequate record to support its conclusion that child victim's hearsay statements were admissible in prosecution for sexual battery on a child and indecent assault; trial court cumulatively weighed numerous potential facts, such as time, circumstances, credibility, demeanor, spontaneity, internal consistency of individual statements, and maturity of child. Reynolds v. State, 660 So.2d 778 (1995)

30. Such evidence is relevant to the State's presentation of evidence in its case-in-chief so as to allow the fact-finder to understand the child victim's perception of events close in time to when they occurred.
31. A copy of the CPT interview of the Child victim [REDACTED] has been provided to the court for review and previously provided to defense counsel as well as all statements made to parents, law enforcement and the mother of the victim.

WHEREFORE, the State prays that this Court will enter an order allowing the State to present evidence of the aforementioned child hearsay statements in its case-in-chief.

MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE CASES FOR TRIAL AND ACCOMPANYING MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Comes now the State of Florida, by and through the undersigned Assistant State Attorney, and pursuant to Rule 3.151 FRCrP, hereby moves this Honorable Court to enter an Order consolidating cases 2021 302657 CFDB, 2021 302656 CFDB. As support for this motion the State would include the following:

1. A formal information has been filed in each case charging each defendant separately.
2. Johnathan Ortiz is currently charged in 2021-302656CFDB with the following: Robbery with a Firearm and Possession of Firearm by a convicted felon. Edgardo Hernandez is currently charged in 2021-302657CFDB with the following: Robbery with a Firearm. Both Defendant's are charged under Florida 10-20 Life statute.
3. Both Defendants are on the Case Docket, division 41.
4. The Defense Attorney has been contacted and does object to this request, the State will request a hearing be set on this matter.

5. Both Defendants are set for trial the week of October 10, 2022, date certain as the primary trial on the Case docket, per Judge Leah Case.
6. All Defendants are triable in the same court, in that, the evidence sought to be produced by the State at each trial will demonstrate an isolated incident where it is alleged both defendants were present and actively involved in criminal behavior amounting to the same or similar crimes. All facts are so inextricably intertwined that the accumulation of, is needed to provide ID, motive, lack of mistake, common scheme and plan, and demonstrate culpability.
7. The same witnesses are involved in each case, same victim, same location of offense, as well as the same law enforcement, the same items tested for DNA, and the same prior listed co-defendant, Kali Cobb, who up until 9/7/2022 was a cooperating witness for the State.
8. To have the Defendant's cases tried separately would be a strain on resources for all agencies involved as well as create the inability of a complete presentation of the prosecution's theory of the case.
9. The State's theory includes the illustration of one Robbery wherein each defendant participated with firearms in the same vehicle.
10. This Consolidation is for the purpose of expediency with litigation, to create a fluid time line of events, to prevent inconsistency in evidentiary rulings regarding the same evidentiary items, as well as judicial economy.
11. The State intends to show that on May 22, 2021, Johnathan Ortiz and Edgardo Hernandez contacted the victim via a "for sale" app on the phone of the third co-defendant Kali Cobb. The Defendants set up a purchase of an expensive belt from the victim and set a location and time to meet to exchange currency for the item. Once at the location, in the same vehicle, owned by Jonathan Ortiz, the Defendants each drew firearms and pointed them at the victim, taking his wallet, the belt, and other various items. The Defendants then fled the scene and was later apprehended by law enforcement in the vehicle. Within the vehicle a search warrant returned the following items:

- Two black in color handguns (a Gloc hand gun and a pistol)
- The Id Card and permit belonging to the victim.
- 2 cell phones
- 3 credit cards
- 2 credit cards belonging to the victim
- Ammunition:
- 2 rifle Magazines
- (25) 9mm projectiles 18 - (1) .38 projectile 19 - (136) .223 projectiles 20 - (86) 20 gauge rounds 21 - (9) .40 caliber projectiles 22 - (2) .45 caliber projectiles

12. Florida Criminal Rules of Procedure 3.151(a) discusses the “triable,” nature of multiple offenses, while subsection (b) specifically uses the word “shall” regarding the consolidation.

- Related Offenses. For purposes of these rules, 2 or more offenses are related offenses if they are triable in the same court and are based on the same act or transaction or on 2 or more connected acts or transactions.
- Consolidation of Indictments or Information’s. Two or more indictments or informations charging related offenses shall be consolidated for trial on a timely motion by a defendant or by the state. The procedure thereafter shall be the same as if the prosecution were under a single indictment or information. Failure to timely move for consolidation constitutes a waiver of the right to consolidation.

13. This motion is timely as it has been filed on the same day as the formal charging information.

14. The State requests This Honorable Court exercise its discretion in granting this motion without a hearing on this matter, as it is its ability to do so.

WHEREFORE the undersigned prays that this Honorable Court enter an Order

Consolidating for trial Case Numbers 2021 302657 CFDB and 2021 302656 CFDB, on to the Division 41 JUDGE LEAH CASE trial docket for the week of October 10th.
