Gov. Scott Appoints Three to the Circuit and County Courts

Judges appointed to the 7th and 9th Circuit Courts and to the Orange County Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced appointments to the Seventh and Ninth Circuit Courts and to the Orange County Court.

Bryan Rendzio is appointed to the 7th Circuit Court. Rendzio, 43, of Ponte Vedra Beach, is a shareholder of Florida Business and Construction Law Group. He received his bachelor's degree from Florida State University and his law degree from Florida Coastal School of Law. Rendzio fills the vacancy created by the death of Judge Clyde Wolfe.

Denise Beamer is appointed to the 9th Circuit Court. Beamer, 36, of Maitland, is a Senior Assistant Attorney General in the Office of the Attorney General. She received her bachelor's degree from the University of Florida and her law degree from Barry University School of Law. Beamer fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Judge Kim Shepard.

Carly Wish is appointed to the Orange County Court. Wish, 42, of Orlando, is a Staff Attorney at the 9th Judicial Circuit Court. She received her bachelor's degree from the University of Tampa and her law degree from Barry University School of Law. Wish fills the vacancy created by the elevation of Judge Jamie Grosshans.
