Re: Former Officer Steven Braddock (Port Orange Police Department)

Dear Defense Counsel:

Our office has been informed that Port Orange Officer Steven Braddock has resigned. He is currently under an active criminal investigation involving allegations of forgery. While the investigation is still ongoing, the allegations arise from alleged forged documents pertaining to a deed and possibly other legal documents. There are no known allegations of forgery involving any police documents.

This information is being furnished as a part of our office's Brady obligation in complying with potentially exculpatory evidence.

Sincerely,

John K. Reid
Chief of Operations South
Office of State Attorney R.J. Larizza
