STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

COMES NOW, [REDACTED], after first being duly sworn, does herein attest to the following statement, under penalty of perjury:

On December 11, Stephen and myself got into an argument. I figured that me staying there would make the argument continue so I began to look for a ride home. I called many people in my phone but no one was available. That's when I called Travis Deane. I informed him that I was looking for a ride home and he said at the time he was busy. I then found a friend to pick me up. During the argument Stephen never once hit me or put his hands on me. The following day, December 11, Stephen came to my house and we talked and came to the realization that the argument the night before was pointless so we continued with our relationship. Then Wednesday December 14 I was working and Travis Deane came in. This was the first time I had seen him since the night I called him. I walked up to him like I would with any other customer and he asked me to sit down and talk to him about the other night. I didn't have anything to talk to him about so I continued working. About an hour or so later he asks me to come outside. I walk outside and he starts asking me if I have any marks on my body. I said yes but they are not because of Stephen. He then said well I still need to take pictures of them. I didnt know what else to do but cooperate so I let him take the pictures. I continued to tell him that Stephen didnt do anything. I then left work and recieved a phone call from Travis telling me that he had put Stephen in jail. I am not and never have been scared of Stephen. I have read the police report and there are many things stated in it that are lies or things that I never said.
