Thank you for inviting me to offer my commentary. Here it is:
I consider your continued attempts to assassinate Sheriff Johnson's character and unjustly portray him as corrupt through the use of rumor, innuendo and fabricated conspiracy theories to be morally reprehensible.

Worse, your baseless insinuations that Sheriff Johnson and this agency manipulate enforcement action, tactical decisions in the field and arrest/charging decisions for political purposes are completely despicable and disgusting! Through your vendetta-driven web site, you have and continue to exhibit extreme bias and hostility towards Sheriff Johnson and the Sheriff's Office and also regularly demonstrate that your repeated inquiries to us are not precipitated by a sincere desire to learn and report the truth.

I say that because in the past, you have often ignored factual information provided by me that didn't fit into your pre-determined and biased story narrative. You and I both know what this is about, and it certainly isn't about honest and truthful reporting of the news. Given your pattern of behavior, the biased, unfair and inaccurate manner in which you've written about prior issues involving the Sheriff's Office and your history of ignoring the facts, I see no reason to believe that your conduct or the personal agenda promoted by your web site will change in the future. Naturally, it's your right to use your web site for any lawful purpose you choose, just as it's our right to decide whether or not to respond to your frequent questioning. And even if we did feel obliged to respond, some of your questions simply can't be answered because the arresting Deputy, Travis Deane, is unavailable due to his termination for poor performance and judgment issues. As it relates to the arrest of Robert Kaiser, I'm not aware of anyone -- and certainly, not Sheriff Johnson -- directing Deputy Deane on how to handle the call or what criminal charges to file.

That being said, the bottom line is that as it relates to this inquiry, you've been provided with all of the records to which you are statutorily entitled. Feel free to draw whatever inferences you choose from those records and write your story in whatever hostile, biased and factually-challenged manner you like for the benefit of your web site visitors and 57 Facebook friends. Quite frankly, in my view, you, your web site and the stories contained therein have no credibility and I do not intend to dignify your questions with any further response beyond what is contained in this e-mail.

Regards,
Gary

P.S.: Rocky Kaiser is not, and has never been, an honorary Volusia County Sheriff's Deputy. He is, however, a Volunteer Reserve Deputy – an appointment first made by former Sheriff Ed Duff more than 30 years ago.
