ASA - State Attorney's Office

Gary :

VolusiaExposed.Com is composing an article regarding the arrest and criminal prosecution of former (retired) Daytona Beach Police Officer Wendell Dallarosa.

Mr. Dallarosa was arrested on August 14, 2016 under the charge of making a false 911 call. (see attached arrest report)

VolusiaExposed.Com files this PRR for an audio copy of Mr. Dallarosa's call(s) to 911 / VCSO. Please forward this electronic record to our below email address. Should there be a financial cost for this record - please advise us at our email address.

Mr. Cromartie:

VolusiaExposed.Com notes that according to the Clerk's website - you filed a NOLLE PROSEQUI in Mr. Dallarosa's prosecution on January 21, 2017 (see attached PDF).

VolusiaExposed.Com files this public record request (PRR) for a copy of Mr. Dallarosa's deferred prosecution agreement with the State Attorney's office. This document is not available from the Clerk's website.

If this document is available electronically - please send it to our below listed email. If the record is not available electronically - please advise where and when the record can be picked up.

Should there be a financial cost for this record - please advise us at our email address.

Should you not be the custodian of the requested record - please send this PRR to the appropriate individual for proper handling.

A question - Mr. Cromartie - are you the same David Cromartie mentioned in the below media article - regarding being "frustrated" awaiting a 911 response - after a friend collapsed and died on a racquetball court?

"One is tangentially reminded of the story of the man who offered a woman one million dollars for sex.

She agreed, which led him to ask if she would agree for ten dollars.

She angrily asked: "What do you think I am?"

He replied: "We know what you are. We are just haggling over price." It is embarrassing, at best, in this or any other case to be haggling over the degree or extent of truthfulness in the testimony of an officer of law. We shame ourselves when we entertain the notion. " - Circuit Judge Joe Will (see below linked judicial decision)
