71 A search warrant was obtained for the residence, while collecting evidence for this investigation, it was obvious Jackson, and [redacted] did damage to 72 the interior and exterior of the residence. The main items destroyed at the residence by Jackson and [redacted] were the following: the master 73 bathroom's shower stall glass was shattered, the master bathroom's porcelain toilet was shattered, the master bathroom's large glass mirror was 74 shattered, and they damaged several interior walls (Jackson and [redacted] by creating holes into the drywall and carving things into them, four sliding 75 glass doors were shattered (each door was roughly 8 feet tall), the patio bathroom glass door was shattered, four windows were shattered, the 76 aluminum frame of patio screen was damaged, as well as 2 televisions (32" and 40") were gouged and cracked. The monetary value of the damage
77 done to the property inside and outside of 1050 Enterprise Osteen Road exceeded over $1000.00. There were other items damaged and all of the 78 damage was documented and photographed by the Volusia Sheriff's Office Crime Scene Unit. During the execution of the search warrant 2 spent 79 (fired) shotgun shells and 4 spent 22 caliber casings were recovered from inside the residence, having been fired by the suspects. No spent AK-47
80 ammunition was located indicating that [redacted] did not actually fire any AK-47 rounds.

81
82 As a result of the evidence collected and the interviews conducted, arrest affidavits were drafted charging Jackson with attempted murder on a law 83 enforcement officer, armed burglary, and criminal mischief over $1000.
